

“I SPENT 25 YEARS AS A BUSINESS FAILURE!”

Yes, I spent my first 25 years in real world trial and error misery as I desperately searched for the keys to motivation. I treated my companies like my own private petri dish as I experimented with all sorts of different bonus programs and motivational techniques. I wanted my employees to be inspired, engaged, motivated and empowered to solve customer problems and care as much as I do. One failure after another just reinforced my resolve and convinced me to keep trying. Somehow, sandwiched in between all those failed attempts, I found ways to create bonus programs that truly incentivized workers and other key motivational techniques that can work for every business manager. I have written two books on the subjects and now share what I have learned so that others can avoid decades of trial and error misfortune!
